IOWA NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION SHOW IS DEEMED A BIG SUCCESS

The Iowa Numismatic Association held its annual convention in Des Moines on October 1 and 2. As usual, a large crowd was in attendance. This, along with the many fine dealers, exhibits and meetings, made for a very busy two days. One of the highlights of the Convention was the banquet honoring our Charter Members. Another significant event was the purchase of the W. E. Van Hook collection by the organization. This collection covers the entire numismatic field and was amassed during a lifetime of coin collecting. The exhibit area was jam-packed with varied displays, including the Junior field of nine exhibitors, surely a record number. Award winners are: U.S. GOLD: 1st- Dr. John Tilton, 2nd- Harry Peters, 3rd- Raymond ryan; U.S. SILVER: 1st- Lou Strnad; U. S. COPPER AND BRONZE: 1st- Charles Schollen; U.S. PAPER: 1st- Gene Morris, 2nd- Don Mark, 3rd- Larry Harvey; FOREIGN: 1st-Charles Schollen, 2nd-Jackie Wildfang, 3rd-Don Proudfit; MEDALS, TOKENS, and SPECIALIZED: 1st- Marilyn Douglas, 2nd- Paul Campbell, 3rd- Don Proudfit; and JUNIOR: 1st- Brooke Samuelson, 2nd-Jackie Wildfang, 3rd-Mark Milliman. Winner of the WINNERS CIRCLE was Marjorie Owen. The best of the Junior displays receiving the Lowell L. Owen Memorial Trophy was Brooke Samuelson. Dr. John Tilton was awarded the Iowa Best of Show plaque.

This 1977 State Convention was dedicated to the Old-Timers, these being the Charter Members (first 89 people to join in 1938). Only nine sustaining members are still living. These are Paul Campbell, Art Kagin, Walter Bohler, Everett Deitz, Lew Ferguson, Lauren Benson, T.J. Barnes, Lee Hewitt, and Earl Pettit. Present at the recognition ceremonies were Paul Campbell, Art Kagin, Lew Ferguson, Everett Deitz and Walter Bohler. Some of these members travelled considerable distance to be present. Walter Bohler came all the way from Colorado. It was noted that T.J. Barnes was in the hospital, and Lauren Benson and Lee Hewitt were in ill health. Each Charter Member received a plaque as a token of appreciation of their support of the I.N.A. for the past 39 years. It might be noted here that some of the officers paid a visit to Mr. Barnes at the Methodist Medical Center on Sunday afternoon. He was delighted that we thought of him, especially since he was facing surgery the next day. (He is recuperating at his home now).

The I.N.A. has purchased the historical collection and will continue to exhibit it at the Iowa numismatic functions. The purchase price was $550. Art Kagin immediately donated $25 toward the purchase and initiated a campaign to solicit pledges to finance the acquisition. When this plan was announced, several contributions were given, including $25 from Marjorie Owen, $25 from Gene Morris, $10 from MBM COINS, and the first item for addition- an ancient Roman copper of the Salonian era, donated by Don Mark. The donations are welcome, either money toward the purchase of items of interest to add to the exhibit. Significant parts of the collection are: a 1908 St. Gaudens Double Eagle in Uncirculated condition, a $5 gold piece, (continued) some Canadian Proof-like sets, A Bahama Islands coin set, dated 1972, some Broken Bank notes, Confederate Currency, Large-size National currency, and other currency including an uncirculated specimen of a $5 One-dollar, a $10 of the series of 1928, a gold certificate, and assorted Fractional items. Other items include: a type set of U.S. half dollars, a type set of U.S. cents, 7 U.S. Proof sets of assorted dates, 6 Commemorative U.S. half dollars, including the 1946 Iowa, Silver dollars, including a Proof-like Morgan, 1924 Peace, and a Trade Dollar, a nice assortment of medals, U.S. Proof singles, and U.S. type specimens. Be sure to look for this display at the I.N.A. Historian's table at future Shows.

I.N.A. is saddened by the loss of Jesse Crawford of Waterloo, who died on August 6. Jesse was a hard worker in the Waterloo Coin Club and will be missed by his many friends there.

Jack Pohl of Davenport is the winner of the design contest for the 40th anniversary medal to be cast in 1978. There will be a limited number of silver medals made with serial numbers. The first 5 medals will be auctioned at the Davenport show next Fall and #40 will go into the Historian's display. There will be a quantity cast in antiqued copper.

We were reminded that Don Mark is the coordinator for Convention planning. All organizations planning shows should let him know as soon as possible, to help keep the Shows from conflicting with others.

There was quite a discussion at the Saturday Board meeting concerning the exhibit rules and regulations. There are six categories for exhibits listed: 1-US coins, 2-Currency, 3-Foreign, 4-Specialized, 5-Junior, and 6-Winners Circle. These categories can be expanded at the Exhibit Chairman's discretion. These categories are for competitive exhibits. Invitational exhibits are also needed. Exhibits are to stay in place until 4:00 P.M. of the last day of the show. There are no firm laws in the By-Laws concerning the Convention, other than the time of year, that is, in September or October.

The 1978 Convention will be held in Davenport on October 7 and 8, at the Holiday Inn, 53rd and Brady.

CLUB NEWS

Ames Coin Club reports their annual Dinner was a big success, with 51 persons attending. Mark Kislingbury entertained with his friend. Mark is quite a talented ventriliquist. W. E. Van Hook gave a recitation, always a pleasure. The dinner was held at the Fjord in Huxley.

The Keokuk Coin Club Show was to be held December 3 and 4 at the National Guard Armory. The December meeting will be held on Thursday, December 29, with a carry-in supper preceding the meeting.

AMES COIN CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL BANQUET

On Wednesday evening, October 26 the Ames Coin Club held their Halloween Party at the Fiord Restaurant in Huxley with over fifty members and guests present. President Arthur Nelson, shown in the photo at left in the back row, center, gave a short talk about the club's activities the past year. His wife, Doris and I.N.A. Director for District Five, is on his left. Club treasurer Frank Shank is to the left of Mrs. Nelson. Mr. & Mrs. C.S. Robertson, foreground, seem to be enjoying a little after-dinner conversation!

CLARION HOLDS 11th ANNUAL COLLECTOR'S SHOW

The Clarion Coin Collectors hosted another successful show October 29-30, 1977. Nearly all phases of collecting were represented with dealers of coins, paper money, stamps, medals, comic books, as well as dealers with many types of antique collectables present. The show was accented with a 'bid board' silent auction Saturday and a live auction Sunday afternoon. Special postmarked cahcets were available as show souvenirs.

WEBSTER CITY 9th ANNUAL COIN AND ANTIQUE SHOW

BELOW RIGHT: An unusual idea to promote a show! These two cakes were baked by ladies in the Club and were auctioned off during Sunday afternoon. Appropriately decorated in green (for the dollar bill) and gold (for the coin), they were the hit of the Show!

.....a pictorial report.

REGISTRATION

The registration table was hectic most of the time! The three, out of many, volunteers that happened to be at the table are, left to right: Des Moines Coin Club Secretary Dorothy Immel, Mrs. Zelma Cobb and, partially showing, Doris Nelson.

EXHIBITS

Only a portion of the many exhibits...

....I.N.A. SECRETARY-TREASURER

The roving camera caught our gal JoAnn cheerfully working behind the typewriter. Maybe someone just paid their dues, thus accounting for the big smile!

SATURDAY NIGHT AWARDS BANQUET

Our guests of honor---five of our original charter members were present to receive plaques: Louis Ferguson, Paul Campbell, Everett Dietz, Walter Bohler and Arthur Kagin.

There were a bunch of smiles at this table: On the left, Des Moines Coin Club Treasurer Rophie McDonald and next to her Secretary Dorothy Immel with their respective husbands Wray and Ronald. Jim Judson, Clarion, is in the lower left. The younger Kelsos, right.

I.N.A. President John Kelso presenting charter member and well-known dealer A. M. Kagin his award. Des Moines Coin Club President Ed Morrow, extreme left, looks on.

Another charter member, Walter Bohler, was able to be with us, even though he now makes his residence in Fort Collins, Colorado!

The Keokuk Club holds drawings each meeting night for cash "kitties". If the member whose name is drawn isn't present, the cash is held over until the next meeting. A mint set is also given away each time.

Clarion Coin Club held its annual (14th) Show on October 29 and 30. An unusual feature of the Show was a special Coin Show cancellation, on envelopes with the Clarion postmark, made available through the combined efforts of the Club and the local Postmaster. The special door prize was a $5 gold piece, won by Darlene Watts. A silent auction was most successful and an educational film was shown. Exhibit winners were: U.S. Coins- Brooke Samuelson; U.S. Currency- Gene Morris; Foreign Coins and Currency- Gene Morris; Medals- Don Wells; Tokens- Gene Morris; Philatelic- Fred Carson; and Americana- Pat Tickal. The Iowa Best of Show plaque was awarded to Gene Morris, whose exhibit of Iowa Merchant Tokens received 275 out of a possible 300 points.

Des Moines Coin Club reports two Honorary, Lifetime members, Albert Eidt of Des Moines and W.E. Van Hook of Maxwell. Both men have been members for 25 consecutive years.-The October meeting was the 41st anniversary for the Club and free birthday cake was served. Three members were appointed to a committee to grade coins being offered for auction at meetings.-In November, a discussion on starting a library of coin publications was quite active. It was decided the material should be stored in the Des Moines Main Public Library. A film was shown- The Story of Banking.

Tri-Cities Coin Club of Moline held its annual dinner meeting, along with election of officers. The report of their Show is of a success, with a profit of enough to handle expenses for the up-coming year.

An estimated 1000 persons attended the 9th annual Webster City Coin and Antique Show held October 8 and 9. Silver and bronze commemorative medals were sold, featuring the historic Jane Young house on the obverse. The bronze issue is still available to anyone interested. LaVerne Crim of Webster City is the person to contact in this regard. Exhibit awards were: Copper- 1st- Brooke Samuelson, 2nd- Layne Samuelson, 3rd- Roger Woodall; Silver- 1st- Brooke Samuelson, 2nd- Layne Samuelson, 3rd- Roger Woodall; Foreign- 1st- Mike Crandall, 2nd- Steve Wells; 3rd- Layne Samuelson; Commemorative- 1st- Brooke Samuelson, 2nd- Dale Caquelin, 3rd- Mike Crandall; Paper- 1st- Brooke Samuelson, 2nd- Dale Caquelin, 3rd- Harold Laugerman. First, second and third place best of show awards were given and were all won by Brooke. The Iowa Best of Show was won by Mike Crandall.

Cedar Rapids Coin Club announces their election results as follows--Bob Douglas, President; Robert Lee, Vice-President; Secretary- Frank L. Dean; Treasurer- Stanley K. Miller; Board members- John Kelso, James Hamling, Kevin Roberts and Bob Hamling. Leo Sears announced he would not run for re-election as Secretary after serving for 22 years.

The annual Carroll County Collectors Club held its Show on September 24 and 25, at the Holy Spirit Auditorium in Carroll. The Show had a good attendance and proof sets were given for door prizes. All members worked on the show to make it a success. The Show carried coins and coin supplies, antiques, quilts, and miscellaneous hobby items.

Editors Comment

What a grand lot of news we have this time! Come on, you Clubs, keep up the good work! It sure makes my job easier when I get Club Bulletins and news from different parts of the state. -- An apology to the Fort Madison Club for not getting their Show listed. We have rather an awkward set-up, with the Bulletin going out every other month, and sometimes these things just get to me at the wrong time. Believe me, it is not intentional. I relish all the info you send me and really hate it when it is too late for one issue and then the activity is over before time for the next issue.-- I do hope all of you had as great a Convention as we did in preparing it for you. We have a good team; granted, we made a few mistakes, but we did learn from it. Besides, you have to put up with us--you'll be back in two years! Now, lets us all make plans to go to Davenport. -- How about all these pictures? We have to thank Don Mark for them; he even added the comments! Perhaps we can do more of this in the future. Just make sure they are in black and white--colored pictures do not reproduce well. Happy Holidays to you all!
